FORUM

FOR MUSIC LOVERS

My favourite composer15th January

Hi,

I am writing a project on Wojciech Kilar, a Polish classical and film music composer. I think he (1) (be) ... one of the most well-known Polish composers.

He (2) (be) ... born in Lwów in 1932. Later he (3) (live) ... in Kraków but (4) (move) ... to Katowice in 1948. Kilar (5) (graduate) ... from the State College of Music with flying colours in 1955. Four years later Wojciech Kilar (6) (receive) ... a scholarship from the French government and (7) (can) ... study composition in Paris.

When Wojciech Kilar (8) (return) ... to Poland he (9) (begin) ... writing music for Polish films. But he (10) (become) ... famous all over the world after he (11) (start) ... working with Francis Coppola on his film 'Dracula'. So when you (12) (watch) ... films like 'The Ninth Gate' or 'The Pianist' and you (13) (listen) ... to music, think about Wojciech Kilar.

~Tomasz – Great job! Although I think Wojciech Kilar or Witold Lutosławski were great composers they aren't very popular among young people. Why don't you write about Leszek Możdżer? He is an example of the new generation of pianists and composers.

~Modern – I like your work and I disagree with Tomasz. Young people should learn about the old masters and Wojciech Kilar is one of them. On the other hand, he composed music for over 100 films and we often listen to soundtracks with his music.
